

JANUARY 21ST

Lincoln Alexander Day

21 January has been celebrated as Lincoln Alexander Day across Canada since 2015. Lincoln MacCauley Alexander, lieutenant-governor of Ontario, member of Parliament, lawyer and public servant.

HONOURABLE LINCOLN ALEXANDER

In 1968, Alexander was the first Black Canadian member of Parliament, Cabinet minister in 1979 and lieutenant-governor of Ontario in 1985

As lieutenant-governor, Alexander was able to take an active role in the multicultural affairs of Ontario. Alexander's mandate was to fight racism, advance the cause of youth and advocate for seniors.

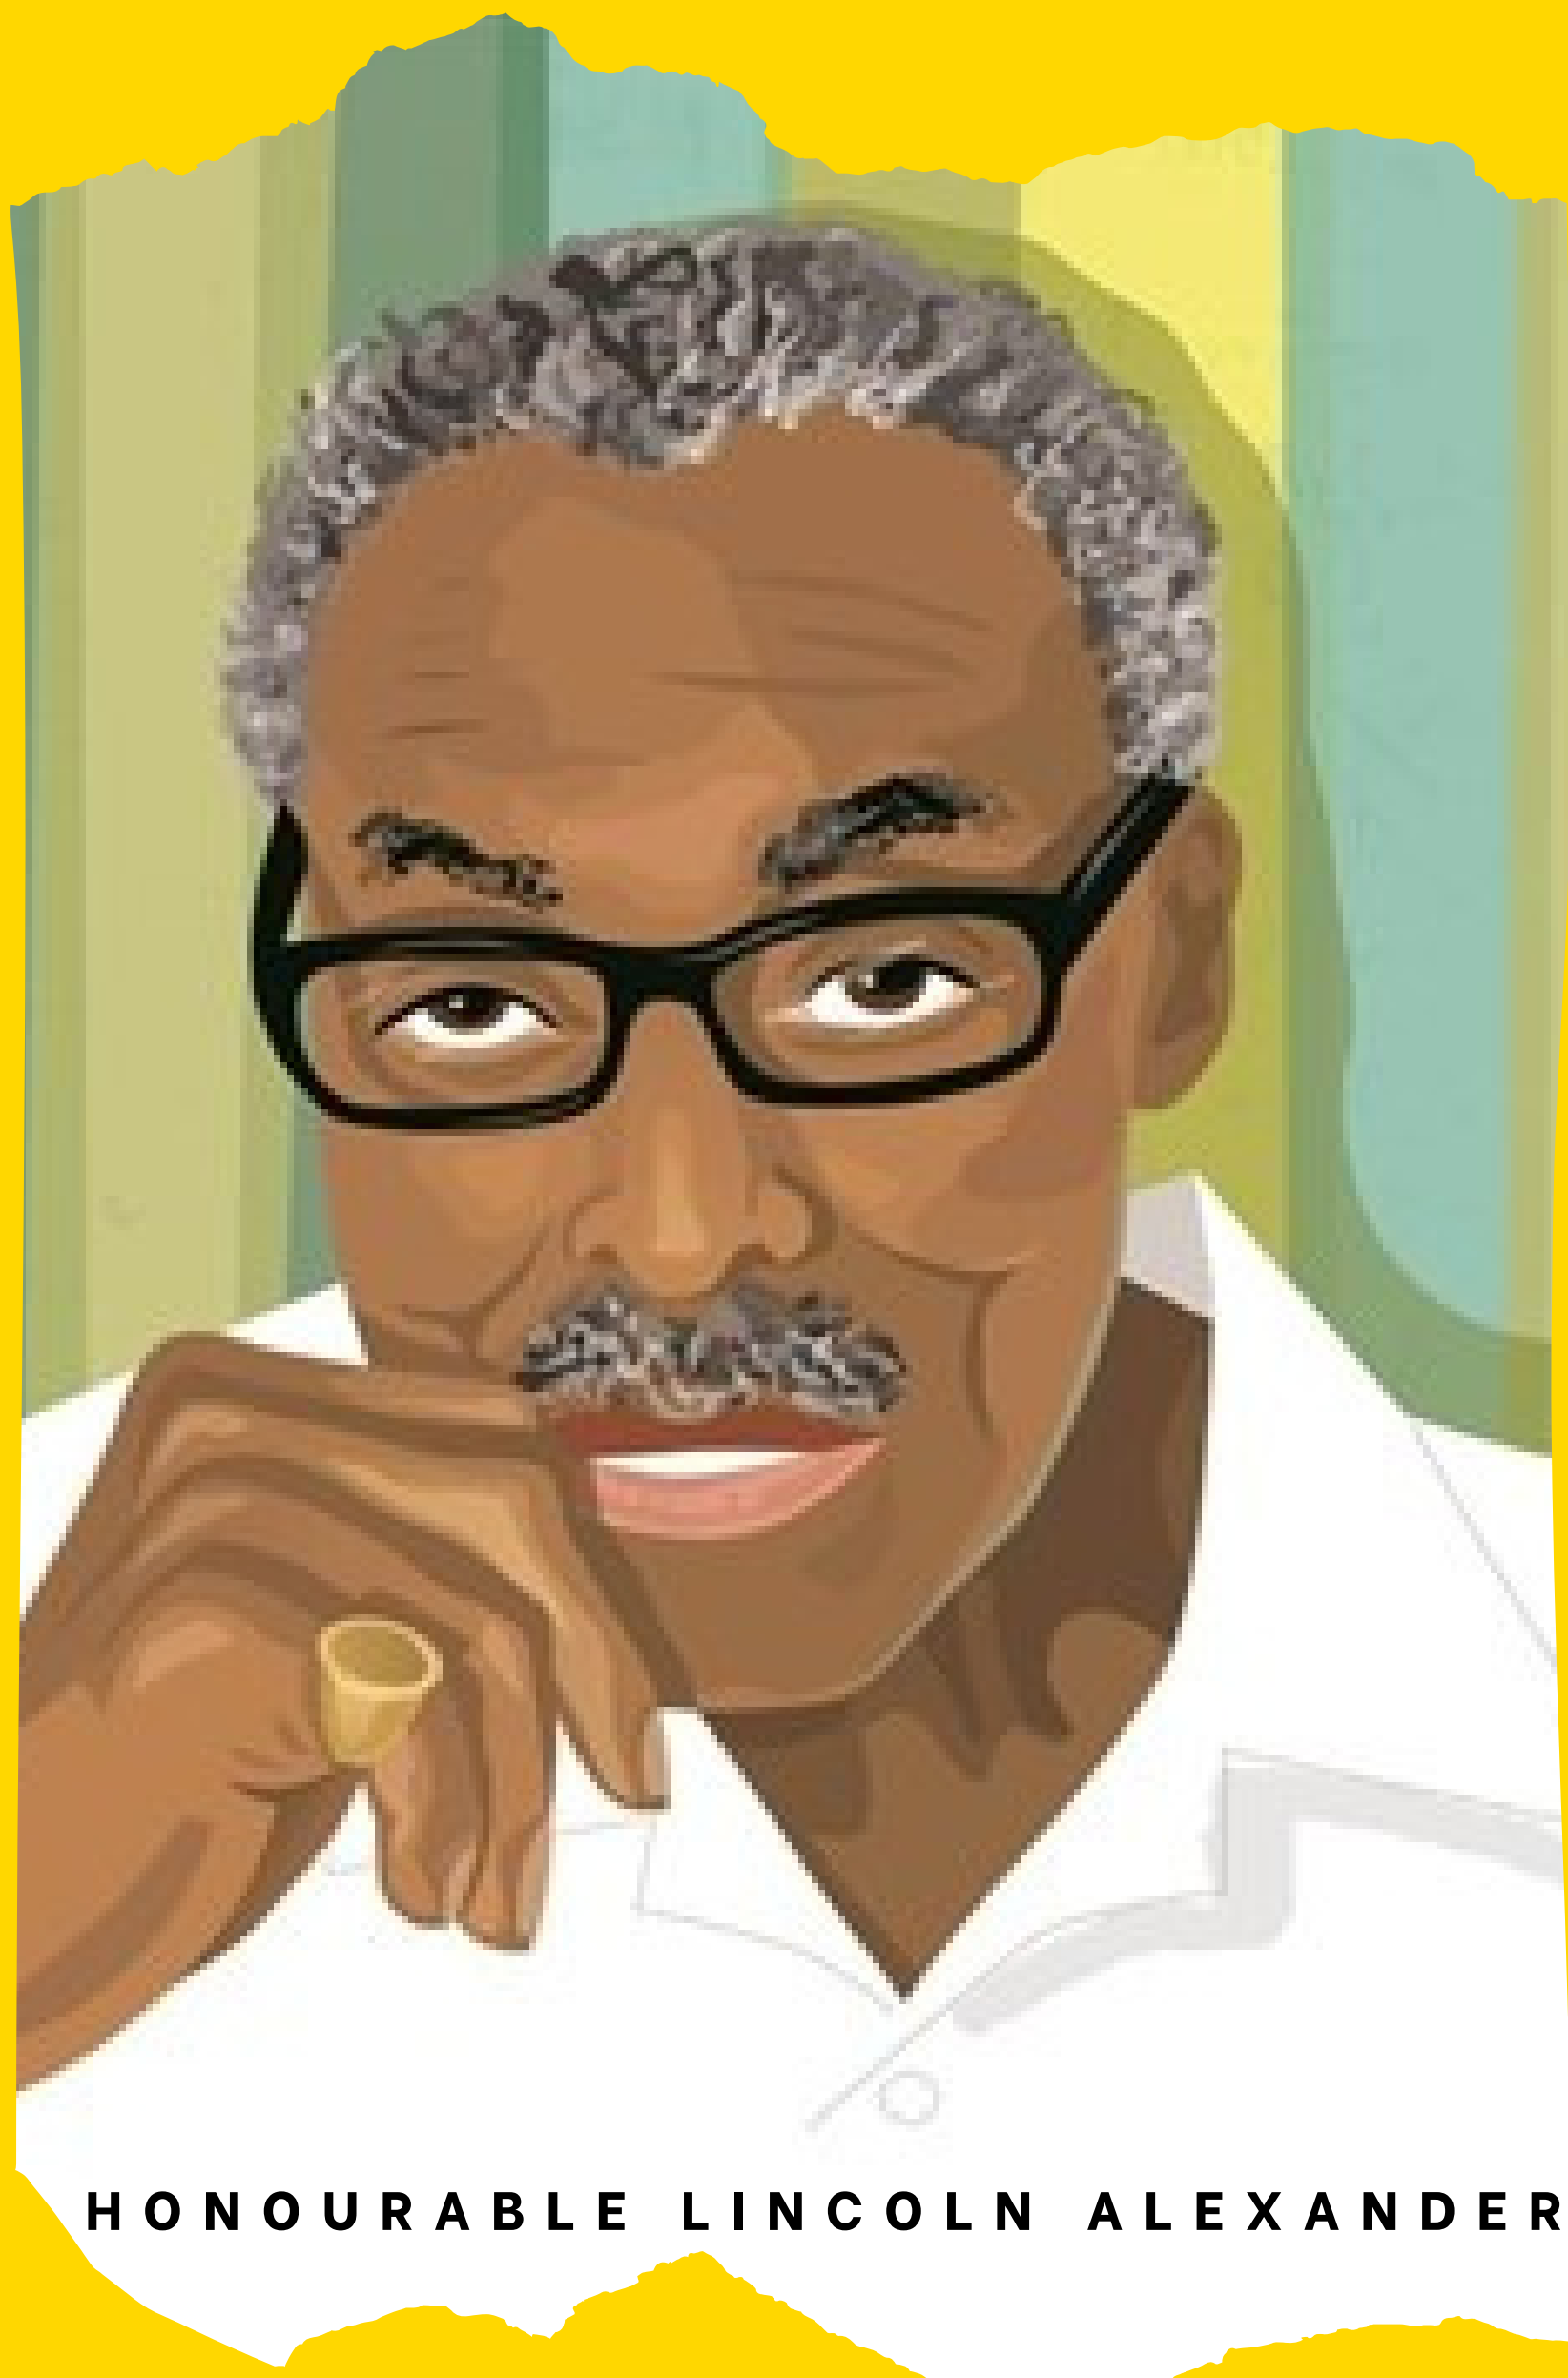

Follow our page at @CACD or www.cacdcanada.org

CACD is a Black-led, Youth-focus Charitable Organization that ensures BIPOC youth can overcome barriers to Education and Employment. To get informed on CACD and receive updates on this month's events and activities!

JANUARY 21ST

Lincoln Alexander Day

21 January has been celebrated as Lincoln Alexander Day across Canada since 2015. Lincoln MacCauley Alexander, lieutenant-governor of Ontario, member of Parliament, lawyer and public servant.

HONOURABLE LINCOLN ALEXANDER

In 1968, Alexander was the first Black Canadian member of Parliament, Cabinet minister in 1979 and lieutenant-governor of Ontario in 1985

As lieutenant-governor, Alexander was able to take an active role in the multicultural affairs of Ontario. Alexander's mandate was to fight racism, advance the cause of youth and advocate for seniors.

Follow our page at @CACD or www.cacdcanada.org

CACD is a Black-led, Youth-focus Charitable Organization that ensures BIPOC youth can overcome barriers to Education and Employment. To get informed on CACD and receive updates on this month's events and activities!